Description

You are starting a collection effort against this company. This is a serious action which will result in a "Placed: For Collection" notice in this company's D&B business report:

You have a choice of escalating collection services and careful thought is needed about what course of action you wish to initiate. Please note:

- If you choose the Demand letter, you cannot order a demand letter series against this customer and cannot initiate contingent collection services for 20 days.
- If you choose the demand letter series, you cannot move this claim to contingent collection services until the demand series has been completed (a 30-day period).
- If you choose contingent collection services, you cannot send demand letters to these customers separately.
- You cannot initiate multiple collection actions against the same company within a 60-day span.

To start a collection effort please choose one of the following:

☒ Demand Letter $10.00

214 → A letter sent by D&B Receivable Management Services on your behalf requesting your customer's payment of an unpaid balance. Learn more...

☐ Demand Letter Series $20.00

216 → A series of three letters sent within a 30-day period with an escalating tone by D&B Receivable Management Services on your behalf requesting your customer's payment of an unpaid balance. Learn more...

☐ Contingent Collection $15.00

218 → A series of written communication and telephone calls by D&B Receivable Management Services on your behalf to recover your uncollected debts. Learn more...

 The minimum claim(s) must total $100 or greater. There is a $35 placement fee. A contingent fee is charged based on the dollars collected by D&B Receivable Management Services. That fee is 28% of the amount recovered or $35, whichever is greater.
